Kaveri Thalvar

Kaveri Thalvar, a school drop out due to family constraints, is now a proud graduate.

With support from her mentors and VF she was able to pursue her dreams of attending college and getting graduated. She made all of us proud by being the best student in her class.

Kudos to her determination and hard work !

After a joyful summer vacation, students are gearing to beginn their new year in school and college.

Stay tuned for our next update on activities and initiatives. If you would like to get involved in any ways, please drop a mail to the contact given beow.
